3. College looks for overall strong academic record, rather than insisting on particular amount of work in particular area. Interview required. Basis for selection: Each application read separately by 3 faculty staff readers. It is then discussed individually in committee of faculty and staff. Most important is high school record; SAT scores, interview, recommendation, and so forth are of next importance and about equal. Only formal requirement is rigorous high school preparation in context of applicant's high school. Applicants from minority or low-income backgrounds have applications reviewed by special admissions committee which gives extra attention to often difficult circumstances in which they must achieve. Middle 50% of applicants accepted for admission had SAT-verbal scores between 550 and 720 and SAT-mathematical scores between 610 and 730. Application fee: $15, may be waived for applicants with financial need. Application procedures: Closing date for applications January 25, applicants notified of decisions by April 15, accepted applicants must reply by May 1. EDP-S. Transfer applicants: About 370 apply annually, and 180 are accepted. Apply by April 1 for fall term. Other requirements and procedures: interview, SAT scores, and college and high school transcripts. Transfer should have B average or better and credit is given for most courses for which college has equivalent if grade is C or better.

STUDENT LIFE. Freshman class: 373 men, 195 women. 28% from Illinois, 96% live on campus, 4% commute, 8% from minority backgrounds. Middle 50% of enrolled freshmen have SAT-verbal scores between 580 and 700 and SAT-mathematical scores between 600 and 725. Freshmen's median SAT-verbal score is 641; median SAT-mathematical score 655. Programs undergraduates choose: Liberal arts 100%. Postgraduate studies: 80% of graduates enter graduate or professional programs. Student activities: Student government, many student-faculty committees, student newspaper, magazine, radio, religious organizations, drama, dance, symphony orchestra, concert band, vocal period groups (Allegro Conspirito, Collegium Musicum), rock bands, political organizations, social service organizations, fraternities. Athletics: Baseball-M, basketball, cross-country-M, fencing-M, football-M, golf-M, gymnastics-M, handball-M, rifle-M, rugby-M, soccer-M, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, track and field-M. Student services: Counseling, health services, student employment service for undergraduates, placement service for graduates and alumni. Regulations: Freshmen required to live on campus. Additional information: Students run their own snackshop and AM-FM radio station and sit in on many of the policy-making committees. There is also a student ombudsman.

ANNUAL EXPENSES. Tuition and fees: $2,475. Room and board: $1,400. Other expenses: $425.

FINANCIAL AID. Aid offered: Grants, loans, jobs. NDSL, EOG, CWSP. 266 accepted freshman applicants were judged to have need, all of these were offered aid, all of these were offered the full amounts they were estimated to need. Basis for selection: Financial aid decisions based almost exclusively on need though limited number of awards made on basis of academic achievement and potential. Application procedures: Closing date for applications January 15, applicants notified of decisions by April 15, recipients of aid offers must reply by May 1. PCS required. Transfer students: Financial aid available beginning with first transfer year. Additional information: Illinois students urged to apply for an Illinois state award.

combination, combined agricultural and law program, combined agricultural science and agricultural engineering program, program in social welfare sponsored by Jane Addams Graduate School of Social Work. Programs for students from minorities or low-income families: Special counselor, pre-admission summer program, tutoring, remedial instruction, reduced course load, specially designed course offerings. Military training: Air Force ROTC, Army Air Force, and Navy ROTC flight training, Army ROTC, Navy ROTC. Required freshman courses: English composition, mathematics, physical education. Tests used for counseling, placement, or credit: Placement, credit, or both will sometimes be given on basis of Advanced Placement Examinations (determined by individual department). No maximum number of semester hours of credit by examination that may be counted toward degree. However, students must meet university and departmental degree requirements. Freshman Guidance Examination, Rhetoric Placement and Proficiency Test, and College Diagnostic Test required of all entering freshmen (except foreign students) for counseling, placement, or credit. Academic regulations: Beginning freshmen must earn at least 3.0 (on 5.0 scale) in first semester or summer session; those who do not, placed on 3.0 probation for next semester. Approximately 83% of freshmen complete year in good standing. Graduate programs: Agriculture, architecture, biological sciences, business and commerce, city planning, communications, computer science and systems analysis, education, engineering, English and journalism, fine and applied arts, foreign language and literature, forestry, geography, health and safety education, home economics, labor and industrial relations, law, library science, linguistics, mathematics, philosophy, physical education, physical sciences, psychology, recreation and park administration, social sciences, social work, veterinary medicine.

ADMISSIONS. Applications in 1971: 11,381 men and women applied, 8,160 were accepted. Admissions requirements: ACT or SAT required; preferably taken in spring of junior year. Entrance examinations in high school subjects required only to remove specific entrance deficiencies for admission to specific curriculums. Test of competence in English required of all foreign students, except foreign students who are citizens of country in which native language is English or those who have received degrees from colleges in countries in which English is native language and instruction was given in English. Minimum of 15 high school units required, including 3 units of English and at least 1 unit each of algebra and plane geometry or equivalent in college preparatory mathematics. Additional specified subjects and special requirements vary according to curriculum desired. Remaining elective units necessary for admission may be selected from any high school subjects accepted by an accredited school toward its diploma. Interview required for theater directing and playwriting, theater technology and design, and occupational therapy majors, and for students wishing 2-year terminal curriculums in aircraft maintenance, aviation electronics, and professional pilot training. Basis for selection: Combination of rank in class and either ACT comprehensive score or SAT score. For certain curriculums, qualifying auditions, interviews, or portfolio of art work required. Nonresidents of Illinois must rank in top quarter of graduating class. Certain admission requirements may be waived for disadvantaged youth from Illinois. Application fee: $15 (nonrefundable), may be waived for disadvantaged applicants with unusual financial need. Application procedures: It is preferred that candidates apply from September 25 to November 15 of their senior year. Closing date for applications 2 weeks before registration (for Illinois students), applicants notified of decisions beginning in mid-December, accepted applicants must reply within approximately 3 weeks. Transfer applicants: About 2,000 applied in fall 1970 and 1,200 were accepted. Completed application should be on file by April 15 for fall term. Other requirements and procedures: transfers with less than 60 semester hours usually not admitted unless they cannot continue profitably at their present institution. Selection made on best-qualified basis. Transfers must fulfill same high school subject requirements as freshman applicants. Transfer applicants considered for admission on basis of number of semester hours attempted and cumulative grade-point average (exclusive of technical or vocational courses and physical education). Minimum acceptable transfer average is 3.25 (on 5.0 scale) but most curriculums require higher averages because number of qualified applicants exceeds number of spaces available. Additional information: Beginning freshmen required to remain in college to which they have been admitted for at least 2 semesters of full-time study.

STUDENT LIFE. Freshman class: 3,120 men, 2,080 women. 97% from Illinois, 95% live on campus in university-owned housing, approved private facilities, and sororities and fraternities, less than 1% commute, 8% from minority backgrounds. Middle 50% of enrolled freshmen have ACT composite scores between 24 and 28. In fall 1970, 80% of beginning freshmen were in top quarter of high school class and over 50% had ACT composite scores of 27 or above. Programs undergraduates choose: Liberal arts 47%, engineering 15%, education 6%, business 10%, agriculture 7%, fine arts 10%, physical education 3%, communications less than 1%, Institute of Aviation less than 1%. Student activities: Student government, student newspaper, magazine, yearbook, radio, television, film, religious organizations (all major faiths represented in community), drama, opera or musical theater, dance, symphony orchestra, marching band, concert band, jazz band, 20 political and civil rights organizations, 20 foreign student organizations, 27 social service organizations, fraternities, sororities. Athletics: Archery, badminton, baseball-M, basketball, bowling, cross-country-M, fencing-M, field hockey-W, football, golf, gymnastics-M, handball-M, ice hockey-M, paddle ball, rifle-M, soccer-M, softball, squash-M, swimming and diving, table tennis, tennis, track and field, volleyball, water polo-M, wrestling-M. Student services: Counseling, health services, student employment service for undergraduates, placement service for graduates and alumni, rehabilitation and education services for physically handicapped. Regulations: All single undergraduates who are 21 years of age or have achieved senior status may live in housing of their choice. Student cars allowed on campus but must be registered.

ANNUAL EXPENSES. Tuition and fees: $558, out-of-state students $1,416. These are figures for Institute of Aviation and for all colleges except School of Basic Medical Sciences in which annual tuition and fees are $946 for Illinois residents and $1,804 per year for out-of-state students. Room and board: $1,043 for men, $1,003 for women. Other expenses: $700.

FINANCIAL AID. Aid offered: Grants, loans, jobs. NDSL, EOG, CWSP. Basis for selection: University subscribes to principle that after high scholarship has been ascertained, amount of scholarship assistance should be based primarily on financial need. Scholarship applicants must have superior academic records and demonstrated financial need. Applicants for grants and loans must demonstrate financial need. Application procedures: Closing date for applications March 1, applicants notified of decision between March 15 and July 1, recipients of aid offers must reply within 3 weeks from date of offer. Four-year private nonsectarian university for men and women. Undergraduates: 1,172 men, 1,213 women. Graduates: 931 men, 1,087 women. Calendar: Semester, summer session. Location: Large city. Special features: Recent additions to the campus include a new College of Music building, a library, and Clowes Memorial Hall where the Metropolitan Opera National Company, The American Opera Company, and the Harkness Ballet have been presented, and which is the permanent home of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra. A new science complex, including a research institute and a science building was to be completed by November 1972. The Indianapolis Museum of Art is adjacent to the Butler campus.

CURRICULUM. The general education program that undergirds the major programs in liberal arts and sciences, education, business administration, pharmacy, and music is centered in the 2-year University College. Instruction even at the freshman level is handled almost exclusively by full-time faculty members, two-thirds of whom have doctoral degrees. Undergraduate degrees offered: Associate, bachelor. Fields of study: Agriculture (food science), biological sciences (biology, botany, marine biology, zoology), business and commerce (accounting, business management and administration, finance, industrial management, marketing, secretarial studies, transportation and commerce), communications (journalism, radio and television), computer science and systems analysis (computer science), education (art, business, child development and nursery, education of exceptional children, education of the deaf, education of the mentally retarded, elementary education, general, health, home economics, music, physical, recreation, secondary education, speech and hearing), English and literature (creative writing, English, literature, speech), foreign languages (Classical languages, French, German, Russian, Spanish), preforestry and conservation, geography, health and medical professions (medical technology, preoptometry, pharmacy), history and cultures (American, ancient, European), home economics (clothing and textiles, food and nutrition), library science, mathematics (statistics), military science (air science), music (composition and theory, instrumental music, music history, voice), philosophy and religion (philosophy, religion), physical sciences (astronomy, chemistry, physical sciences, physics), psychology (general), social sciences (economics, political science, sociology), theater arts (dance, drama, theater arts). Special programs: Honors program, independent study, study abroad by arrangement. Military training: Air Force ROTC. Required freshman courses: English composition, history or social studies, literature, physical education (within the first 2 years). Requirements in foreign language, mathematics, and science vary considerably from program to program during the first year. All students are required to complete no less than 8 semester hours selected from mathematics, the physical or biological sciences, astronomy, or experimental psychology. Tests used for counseling, placement, or credit: Placement, credit, or both will generally be given for grades of 3 and higher in Advanced Placement Examinations. Credit for grades of 4 or 5 is automatic. Grades of 3 are referred to the department for recommendation. Credit will generally be given on basis of CLEP General Examinations for scores of 500 or above and on basis of CLEP Subject Examinations for scores of 50 or above. Academic regulations: Freshmen must maintain a 2.00 (C) cumulative grade-point average to remain in good academic standing. Graduate programs: Biological sciences, business and commerce, education, English and journalism, fine and applied arts (music, dance), foreign language and literature, mathematics, physical sciences (chemistry, physics), psychology, religion, social sciences, pharmacy.

ADMISSIONS. Applications in 1971: 687 men applied, 592 were accepted; 695 women applied, 630 were accepted. Admissions requirements: ACT or SAT by July, senior year. Although Butler operates on a rolling admissions basis, and thus will consider test data as late as July of the senior year, about 85% of applications for the freshman class are ordinarily received by January 15. High school English 4 units, social studies 2, foreign language 2, mathematics 2, science 2, electives 3. Applicants intending to major in science, pharmacy, or mathematics are urged to offer extra units in science and mathematics, while those intending to major in business will do well to offer additional units in mathematics. Applications of students otherwise well qualified but lacking units in any of the specified areas will be reviewed and given special consideration by the admissions committee. Interview recommended. Basis for selection: In evaluating an applicant's qualifications, the university carefully considers each of the following: student's scholastic record in high school, cumulative test record including admissions tests, citizenship record in high school, recommendations of school officials, and ability of Butler to serve the needs and interests of the student. Application fee: $15; may be deferred for applicant with financial need, but must be paid if he is admitted. Application procedures: No closing date for applications, applicants notified of decisions within 3 weeks after all credentials have been received, accepted applicants must reply within 21 days of acceptance. EDP-F. Transfer applicants: About 275 apply annually, and 178 are accepted. Apply by August 15 for fall term. No less than a 2.00 (C) cumulative average in previous work, and only grades of C or better are accepted in transfer. Applicant must also have a good citizenship record in the college previously attended.

STUDENT LIFE. Freshman class: 285 men, 340 women, 45% from Indiana, 80% live on campus, 20% commute, 4.5% from minority backgrounds. Programs undergraduates choose: Liberal arts 44%, education 20%, business 13%, music 16%, pharmacy 7%. Postgraduate studies: 72% of graduates enter graduate or professional programs. Student activities: Student government (student assembly, men's advisory board, women's advisory board, student publications board), student newspaper, magazine, yearbook, radio, religious organizations (Newman Club, Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, Methodist Student Fellowship, Christian Science Organization, Fellowship of Religious Liberals, Young Men's Christian Association, Young Women's Christian Association), drama, opera or musical theater, dance, symphony orchestra, marching band, concert band, 7 major choral groups, Young Democrats, Young Republicans, social organizations (fraternities, sororities, association of independent students). Athletics: Baseball-M, basketball, bowling, cross-country-M, field hockey-W, football-M, golf-M, softball, swimming and diving-M, tennis, track and field-M. Student services: Counseling, health services, student employment service for undergraduates, placement service for graduates and alumni. Regulations: No restrictions on students bringing cars to campus. Both men and women are required to live in university housing until they are 21 (unless they live at home with parents or have requested permission to live with relatives). Drinking alcoholic beverages, using drugs, and gambling are not permitted on campus. Additional information: Butler students are gregarious. Students are easily gathered for informal activities, and much leisure time is spent in the campus club and snack bars. Students report that professors go out of their way to help students and that students commonly share problems. The performing arts are given much attention, and many famous people are brought to the campus for lectures, concerts, and student discussions.

ANNUAL EXPENSES. Tuition and fees: $1,850. Room and board: $950. Other expenses (books, supplies): $150.

FINANCIAL AID. Aid offered: Grants, loans, jobs. Basis for selection: Applicants for academic scholarships are evaluated on the basis of the secondary school record and admissions test scores. Applicants for grants-in-aid in athletics and debate, or audition grants in the performing arts, are evaluated on the basis of admissions credentials and special abilities in the respective areas. Service awards and work grants are distributed on the recommendation of the respective department heads involved. All students may apply to the student placement center for part-time employment. Application procedures: Students may not apply for financial aid until they have received an offer of admission. Financial aid applications are then promptly sent to all qualified applicants, and decisions from the committee on academic scholarships usually follow within a period of 10 days to 2 weeks. No closing date for applications although in 1971 student aid funds were exhausted by January 12 for the class entering in September; applicants notified of decisions within 2 weeks; recipients of aid offers must reply within 21 days from date of aid offer. Transfer students: Are not eligible for academic scholarship consideration until they have completed 2 semesters of full-time study at Butler. However, candidates may apply for loans or part-time employment during the first semester. Additional information: Many Butler students have profited from using the federally approved loan program, United Student Aid Funds, Inc., The Tuition Plan, Inc., The College Aid Plan, Inc., the Indiana state scholarship and grant program, or scholarship and loan resources from other states that permit their use for out-of-state educational purposes.

Holy Cross Junior College, Notre Dame, Indiana

Two-year Roman Catholic liberal arts college for men and women. Undergraduates: 196 men, 91 women. Calendar: Semester, summer session. Location: Large city, suburban community 2 miles from South Bend, Indiana. Special features: Emphasis placed on the general survey courses characteristic of the freshman and sophomore years in a liberal arts college.

CURRICULUM. Undergraduate degrees offered: Associate. Fields of study: Art (art history, commercial art), business and commerce, communications, education, English and literature, foreign languages (French, Spanish), geography, history and cultures, philosophy and religion, psychology, social sciences (economics, political science, social work, sociology). Special programs: Independent study. Military training: Air Force ROTC, Army ROTC (in cooperation with University of Notre Dame). Required freshman courses: English composition, religion (Catholic students only). Tests used for counseling, placement, or credit: Placement, credit, or both will generally be given for grades of 3 and higher in Advanced Placement Examinations. Credit will generally be given on basis of CLEP General and Subject Examinations. Maximum of 30 semester hours of credit by examination may be counted toward degree. Academic regulations: First semester minimum 1.0 grade-point average, second semester minimum 1.60, third semester minimum 1.80, fourth semester minimum 2.00. Approximately 80% of entering freshmen qualify for advancement to sophomore year by completing minimum requirements. Additional information: The choice of courses is largely determined by the senior college requirements of the institution to which the student intends to transfer. Language and mathematics selections are determined by the curriculum into which the student wishes to transfer.

ADMISSIONS. Applications in 1971: 140 men applied, 114 were accepted; 50 women applied, 47 were accepted. Admissions requirements: SAT. Test scores are not used as absolute criteria in determining admission. They serve an advisory function. High school English 4 units, social studies 3, mathematics 2, science 1. The above minimum requirements are desirable. Students who have not followed a college preparatory curriculum will be accepted if their general academic record is good and their motivation seems adequate. Interview required for local students. Basis for selection: After transcripts and letters of recommendation have been received the student is asked to make arrangements for an interview, during which time his readiness for college is assessed. An intuitive judgment is often the basis for acceptance. (Most of the students are local.) Local students are not given preference but the lack of accommodations on campus leads to a housing problem for out-of-town students. Middle 50% of applicants accepted for admission had SAT-verbal scores between 375 and 450 and SAT-mathematical scores between 400 and 450. Application fee: $10, may be waived for applicants with financial need. Application procedures: Closing date for applications January 15 for spring and August 15 for fall, applicants notified of decisions in 2 weeks. Transfer applicants: About 30 apply annually, and 20 are accepted. Apply by August 15 for fall term. Other requirements and procedures: Generally, only students who are in academic difficulty apply. If the lack of success can be attributed to social and emotional factors rather than academic ones, the decision on admission is often positive. This is particularly true if the student has been attending a large university for his first semester in college. Credit is awarded for previous work provided the grade earned is C or above. Students on transfer-probationary status are limited to 4 courses their first semester. A grade-point average of 2.00 is required at the completion of the first semester for a transfer student.

STUDENT LIFE. Freshman class: 114 men, 47 women, 80% from Indiana, 100% commute, 7% from minority backgrounds. Middle 50% of enrolled freshmen have SAT-verbal scores between 375 and 450 and SAT-mathematical scores between 400 and 450. Students are "academically average." Little relationship between their SAT scores and success at this college. Programs undergraduates choose: Liberal arts 50%, education 20%, business 30%. Postgraduate studies: 38% of graduates enter 4-year programs. Student activities: Student government (elected student council assists the administration). Athletics: Baseball, basketball, football-M, handball, softball. Student services: Counseling. Regulations: Cars are permitted. No dormitory facilities are available. Chapel attendance is not a requirement. Additional information: Students' social and emotional needs are met principally off campus.

ANNUAL EXPENSES. Tuition and fees: $1,000. Other expenses: $100.

FINANCIAL AID. Aid offered: Grants, jobs. NDSL, EOG, CWSP. 104 accepted freshman applicants were judged to have need, 25 of these were offered aid, 2 of these were offered the full amounts they were estimated to need. Basis for selection: For federally funded programs decisions are based on need as determined by the PCS. No differentiation is made on basis of state residence. A student should be full time (12 or more semester hours) to qualify for federally funded program. Application procedures: Closing date for applications June 1, applicants notified of decisions by August 1, recipients of aid offers must reply by August 15. PCS required. Transfer students: Requirements and procedures for transfer students requesting aid through federally funded programs is the same as for freshman applicants.

CURRICULUM. Undergraduate degrees offered: Bachelor. Fields of study: Art (art history, design, studio art), biological sciences (biochemistry, biology, botany, ecology, physiology, zoology), business and commerce (accounting, business management and administration, finance, marketing, secretarial studies), communications (journalism, radio and television), education (art, business, elementary, general, health, music, physical, recreation, secondary), English and literature (creative writing, English, literature, speech), foreign languages (French, Spanish), geography, health and medical professions (health and safety, medical technology, nursing–registered), history and cultures (American, ancient, area and regional, European), library science, mathematics (statistics), music (composition and theory, instrumental music, music history, voice), philosophy and religion (philosophy, religion, theology), physical sciences (astronomy, chemistry, earth science, geology, physical sciences, physics), psychology (child, experimental, general, social), social sciences (anthropology, economics, political science, sociology), theater arts (drama, theater arts). Special programs: Honors program, independent study. Required freshman courses: English composition, history or social studies, literature, mathematics, physical education, religion, science.

ADMISSIONS. Applications in 1971: 99 men applied, 90 were accepted; 103 women applied, 99 were accepted. Admissions requirements: ACT or SAT by July following graduation. No minimum test score required; however, scores are used in counseling and placement. High school English 3 units, 7 units from social studies, foreign language, mathematics and science; student must have passing grades in at least 10 academic units. Interview recommended. Basis for selection: The basic consideration for admission is the student's ability to do college work. This is determined from the high school record, SAT scores, personal recommendations, and personal interviews. Since an upright character and a personal maturity are considered to be related to the academic performance, these are 2 of the most important considerations used. Program to encourage applicants from minority and poverty backgrounds through high school counselors and special group meetings. Middle 50% of applicants accepted for admission had SAT-verbal scores between 400 and 490 and SAT-mathematical scores between 430 and 510. Application fee: $15. Application procedures: Closing date for applications August 31, applicants notified of decisions 2 weeks after all materials are in. Transfer applicants: About 35 apply annually, and 29 are accepted. Apply by August 15 for fall term. The college accepts transfer work, carrying C grades or better, from accredited institutions provided the coursework applies toward the program of study pursued at Huntington.

STUDENT LIFE. Freshman class: 110 men, 110 women, 50% from Indiana, 70% live on campus, 30% commute, 3% from minority backgrounds. Middle 50% of enrolled freshmen have SAT-verbal scores between 410 and 500 and SAT-mathematical scores between 430 and 510. Programs undergraduates choose: Liberal arts 35%, education 65%. Student activities: Student government, student newspaper, yearbook, television, religious organizations (Clericus, Collegiate Challenge, Fellowship of Christian Athletes), drama, pep band, political organizations (Young Democrats, Young Republicans), Creative Writers, international club, student education association, science club, varsity club, women's recreation association, social service organizations (mental health club for community service), fraternities, sororities. Athletics: Archery, baseball-M, basketball, cross-country-M, golf-M, soccer-M, softball, tennis, track and field, volleyball, wrestling-M. Student services: Counseling, health services, student employment service for undergraduates, placement service for graduates and alumni. Regulations: All motor vehicles driven on campus must be registered, for which a small fee is charged. Students are required to attend regularly scheduled chapel services. Noncommuting students (unmarried students not living with parents) must live in college residence facilities until the age of 21. When resident facilities are filled, permission may be granted to live off campus.

ANNUAL EXPENSES. Tuition and fees: $1,585. Room and board: $1,075. Other expenses: $400.

FINANCIAL AID. Aid offered: Grants, loans, jobs. NDSL, EOG, CWSP. 124 accepted freshman applicants were judged to have need, 124 of these were offered aid, 90 of these were offered the full amounts they were estimated to need. Basis for selection: Academic scholarships are based on class rank, grades, and test scores, regardless of need. All federal aid is awarded on the basis of need as determined by the PCS. Middle 50% of applicants who were offered financial aid had SAT-verbal scores between 500 and 600 and SAT-mathematical scores between 460 and 660. Application procedures: No closing date for applications, applicants notified of decisions within 2 weeks. PCS and college's financial aid application required.

ADMISSIONS. Applications in 1971: 866 women applied, 704 were accepted. Admissions requirements: SAT by January, senior year. While not required, English Composition, Level I or II Mathematics, and foreign-language ACH are strongly recommended for placement purposes; to be taken by March, senior year. High school English 4 units, social studies 1, foreign language 2, mathematics 3, science 1, and electives 5. Electives should be chosen from college-preparatory subjects. Interview recommended. Basis for selection: Type of school attended, courses studied, and class rank are strong factors in decision making. 80% of freshmen are from top quarter of high school class. Middle 50% of applicants accepted for admission had SAT-verbal scores between 550 and 599 and SAT-mathematical scores between 500 and 550. Application fee: $15, may be waived for applicants with financial need. Application procedures: Closing date for applications March 1, applicants notified of decisions by April 1, accepted applicants must reply by May 1. EDP-S. Transfer applicants: About 150 apply annually, and 80 are accepted. Apply by June 1 for fall term. Other requirements and procedures: must have completed at least 30 semester hours, maintaining a cumulative B average. D's are not accepted. No credit is given for courses not included in the St. Mary's College curriculum.

STUDENT LIFE. Freshman class: 520 women, 13% from Indiana, 97% live on campus, 3% commute, 3% from minority backgrounds. Middle 50% of enrolled freshmen have SAT-verbal scores between 540 and 570 and SAT-mathematical scores between 530 and 550. Programs undergraduates choose: Liberal arts 51%, education 13%, business 5%, fine arts 12%, health services 2%, science 9%, mathematics 7%. Postgraduate studies: 20% of graduates enter graduate or professional programs. Student activities: Student government, student newspaper, magazine, yearbook, radio, television, film, religious organizations, drama, symphony orchestra, concert band, political organizations, ethnic organizations, social service organizations. Student services: Counseling, health services, student employment service for undergraduates, placement service for graduates and alumni. Regulations: Seniors may have cars; off-campus housing permitted for juniors and seniors; college does not provide approved housing list.

ANNUAL EXPENSES. Tuition and fees: $2,285. Room and board: $1,160. Other expenses: $500.

FINANCIAL AID. Aid offered: Grants, jobs, NDSL, EOG, CWSP. 230 accepted freshman applicants were judged to have need, 110 of these were offered aid, 10 of these were offered the full amounts they were estimated to need. Basis for selection: Need as determined by careful analysis of PCS. Those with the greatest need are given aid first. Ordinarily, if a student is accepted, it is assumed she will succeed in her studies; therefore academic achievement is not given great consideration. Special attention is given to minority and disadvantaged students and a considerable number receive the full amount of aid they are estimated to need. Application procedures: Closing date for applications February 1, applicants notified of decisions by May, recipients of aid offers must reply by June. PCS required. Transfer students: Basically the same aid is available to transfer students after 2 semesters at St. Mary's College as is available to other applicants. An effort is made to award the same amount of aid the student received at the previous institution.

FINANCIAL AID. Aid offered: Grants, loans, jobs, minority scholarships, academic scholarships, other scholarships. NDSL, EOG, CWSP, Law Enforcement Education Program. 315 accepted freshman applicants were judged to have need, 168 of these were offered aid (exclusive of Iowa tuition grants), 50 of these were offered the full amounts they were estimated to need. Basis for selection: Academic scholarships, music scholarships, and athletic awards are awarded generally on a "no need" basis although in some borderline cases need is considered. General grants-in-aid are awarded on a need basis with consideration of grades. In-state and out-of-state applicants are treated the same. Both the EOG and Iowa Tuition Grant Programs take care of needy students. Loras has a $7,000 scholarship fund (per year) for minority students. Application procedures: No closing date for applications, applicants notified of decisions on a rolling admissions basis, recipients of aid offers must reply as soon as possible after aid offer is made. PCS required, FFS accepted. SFS required for self-supporting students. Transfer students: Freshman applicants given preference over transfer applicants. This trend might change if large numbers of transfer students apply from area community colleges. The college tries to continue the aid students previously had but not as a set policy. A transfer student who is excellent scholastically will rate top priority for assistance. Additional information: The college employs many students (in addition to CWSP). The city and community provide job opportunities off campus.

Credit will generally be given on basis of CLEP Subject Examinations. Maximum of 9 courses may be credited toward degree by examination. Academic regulations: To continue in good standing freshmen must have a cumulative grade-point average of 1.5 at the end of first term and 1.6 at end of second term. Additional information: Student-initiated courses, alternate route to graduation, field experience.

ADMISSIONS. Applications in 1971: 334 men applied, 295 were accepted; 309 women applied, 301 were accepted. Admissions requirements: ACT or SAT by April of senior year. High school English 4 units, social studies 2, foreign language 2, mathematics 2, science 2. The above units are recommended rather than required, but student must have 12 academic units. Interview recommended. Basis for selection: Class rank and SAT or ACT scores are combined in a formula to make grade predictions. In this formula, class rank is emphasized more than test scores. Exceptions to this procedure are made in the cases of educationally deprived students. Middle 50% of applicants accepted for admission had ACT composite scores between 21 and 24. Application fee: $15, may be waived for applicants with financial need. Application procedures: No closing date for applications, applicants notified of decisions on rolling admissions basis, accepted applicants must reply by April 1 (if accepted after March 1—within 30 days). Transfer applicants: About 200 apply annually, and 150 are accepted. Apply by August 1 for fall term. Other requirements and procedures: must have high school transcript, test scores, college transcripts sent.

STUDENT LIFE. Freshman class: 200 men, 200 women, 60% from Iowa, 90% live on campus, 10% commute, 5% from minority backgrounds. Middle 50% of enrolled freshmen have ACT composite scores between 21 and 24. 59% of students ranked in top quarter of class. Programs undergraduates choose: Liberal arts 100%. Postgraduate studies: 13% of graduates enter graduate or professional programs. Student activities: Student government (student senate, students on some faculty committees), student newspaper, magazine, yearbook, radio, religious organizations, drama (touring theater), symphony orchestra, concert band, pep band, choir, castle singers, stage band, varsity band), political organizations (Young Republicans, Young Democrats), ethnic organizations (Black Culture House, Afro-American Society), social service organizations (social work group, community service activities). Athletics: Baseball-M, basketball, bowling, cross-country-M, football-M, golf, softball, tennis, track and field-M, wrestling-M. Student services: Counseling, health services, student employment service for undergraduates, placement service for graduates and alumni. Regulations: Students may have automobiles but must register them in office of student affairs; required to attend convocation programs; all students live on campus unless they commute or have special permission of director of student affairs. Additional information: Students are oriented toward service careers.

ANNUAL EXPENSES. Tuition and fees: $1,895. Room and board: $850.

FINANCIAL AID. Aid offered: Grants, loans, jobs. NDSL, EOG, CWSP. 565 accepted freshman applicants were judged to have need, 511 of these were offered aid, 450 of these were offered the full amounts they were estimated to need. Basis for selection: Awarding of aid is primarily based on the demonstration of need as shown on the PCS, although academic records are also taken into consideration. Efforts are made to minimize loans to minority students. Application procedures: Closing date for applications February 1, applicants notified of decisions on rolling admissions basis after about January 1, recipients of aid offers must reply by April 1. PCS preferred, FFS accepted. Transfer students: If receiving funds under federal programs previously, efforts are made to continue the same aid. Junior college graduates receive preference. Additional information: Since approximately two-thirds of Wartburg's enrollment are Iowa students, applicants are encouraged to look into the Iowa State Scholarship Program and the Iowa Tuition Grant Program. Lutheran students are also advised to consult their Lutheran Brotherhood and the Aid Association for Lutherans insurance representatives for information on special scholarships awarded to deserving policyholders.

CURRICULUM. Undergraduate degrees offered: Associate, bachelor. Fields of study: Agriculture (agriculture economics, agronomy–field crops, animal science, dairy science, horticulture, landscaping), art (art history, design, graphic arts, studio art), biological sciences (bacteriology, biochemistry, biology, botany, marine biology, physiology, zoology), business and commerce (accounting, business management and administration, finance, marketing, real estate, secretarial studies), communications (communications, journalism, radio and television), computer science and systems analysis (computer science, data processing), education (agricultural, art, business, education of the mentally retarded, elementary, health, home economics, industrial arts, music, physical education, recreation, secondary, vocational trade and industrial), engineering (civil, electrical, mechanical, plastics technology), English and literature (English, literature, speech), ethnic studies (black or Afro-American, Spanish American), foreign languages (Classical languages, French, German, Russian, Spanish), forestry and conservation (preforestry), geography, health and medical professions (dental hygiene, health and safety, pre-medical technology, nursing–registered, pre-optometry, pre-physical therapy), history and cultures (American, ancient, European), home economics (clothing and textiles, family relations, food and nutrition, infant and child care, institution management), library science, mathematics, military science (military science–Army), music (instrumental music, music history, voice), philosophy and religion (philosophy, religion), physical sciences (astronomy, chemistry, earth science, geology, meteorology, physical sciences, physics), psychology (experimental, general), social sciences (anthropology, economics, political science, public administration, social work, sociology), theater arts (drama, theater arts). Special programs: Cooperative education, honors program, independent study, study abroad (summer in Mexico). Military training: Army ROTC. Required freshman courses: English composition, social studies, literature or humanities, mathematics, physical education or health or military science, science. Academic regulations: Freshman students, after completion of first academic year, must maintain a 1.80 cumulative grade-point average or better to remain in good academic standing (using a 4-point grading system). Approximately 70% of the freshman students are in good standing after the first academic semester. Graduate programs: Agriculture, biological sciences, business and commerce, education, English and journalism, fine and applied arts, folklore, foreign language and literature, geography, home economics, library science, mathematics, psychology, social sciences, public service, music, humanities, engineering physics.

ADMISSIONS. Applications in 1971: 3,919 men and women applied, 3,716 were accepted. Admissions requirements: ACT by July 15. Out-of-state beginning freshman applicants should obtain a composite score of 20 on the ACT. Transfer students are not required to take pre-entrance examination. Applicants must be graduates of an accredited high school. Basis for selection: Graduates of an accredited Kentucky high school may be admitted unconditionally to the freshman class if an average of C has been earned in combined units of English, science, mathematics, and social studies and if an average of C has been earned in all work attempted. Applicants who have slightly less than a C average in the combined units will be admitted on a conditional basis for the first semester in which they enroll. Applicants whose high school average is considerably less than a C in the combined units will be required to enroll for a special summer session for six or seven semester hours of credit or defer their enrollment until the spring semester. Other factors which will be taken into account are scores obtained on ACT, rank in high school class, recommendations from principal, guidance counselor, or other interested persons, and personal qualifications and citizenship. Graduates of accredited high schools from states other than Kentucky should rank in the top one-third of their graduating class, have a 2.5 grade average (using a 4 point system) in all high school work including the combined units of English, mathematics, science and social studies, and obtain a composite score of 20 on ACT. Applications received from states other than Kentucky will be reviewed on a competitive basis. The above minimum requirements for consideration of an out-of-state application do not guarantee admission to the university. Application procedures: Closing date for applications May 1 (out-of-state), August 1 (in-state), applicants notified of decisions immediately. Transfer applicants: About 1,038 apply annually, and 841 are accepted. Students desiring to transfer from another accredited college should submit an application for admission and two official transcripts from each college attended. In order to receive favorable consideration, transfer students must have a minimum grade-point average of C for the last semester or term of full-time work, a cumulative grade-point average of C, and be in good standing at the institution from which they are transferring. Transfer students from states other than Kentucky will be considered on a competitive basis and the above minimum requirements for consideration of a transfer application do not guarantee admission to the university. Under no conditions will the applicant be permitted to ignore previous college work.

STUDENT LIFE. Freshman class: 2,500 men and women. 86% from Kentucky, 95% live on campus, 5% from minority backgrounds. Middle 50% of enrolled freshmen have ACT composite scores between 17 and 23. Programs undergraduates choose: Liberal arts 13%, education 60%, business 20%, agriculture 2%, home economics 1%, health services 1%. Student activities: Student government, student newspaper, yearbook, television, film, religious organizations (Western Religious Council), drama, musical theater, dance, symphony orchestra, marching band, concert band, Gemeni 16 (a choral group), Women's Show Band, Young Republicans, Young Democrats, Black Student Union, social service organizations (Alpha Phi Omega, Gamma Sigma Sigma, Circle K), 15 fraternities, 9 sororities. Athletics: Baseball-M, basketball, bowling, cross-country-M, field hockey-W, football-M, golf-M, gymnastics, handball, rifle, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, track and field, wrestling-M. Student services: Counseling (admissions, vocational, academic, personal), health services, student employment service for undergraduates, placement service for graduates and alumni. Regulations: Students are not required to live in dormitories; no compulsory chapel attendance; upperclassmen may operate automobiles.

ANNUAL EXPENSES. Tuition and fees: $300, for students from out-of-state $800. Room and board: $900. Other expenses: $400.

FINANCIAL AID. Aid offered: Grants, loans, jobs. NDSL, EOG, CWSP, Nursing Loans and Scholarships, Law Enforcement Education Program. 1,186 accepted freshman applicants were judged to have need, 771 of these were offered aid, 537 of these were offered the full amounts they were estimated to need. Basis for selection: Priority is given to those who have the greatest need, the best academic achievement, and apply on time. Application procedures: Closing date for applications March 15 for maximum consideration, applicants notified of decisions during May and June, recipients of aid offers must reply within 30 days. Must submit an application provided by the university. Transfer students: Junior college transfers in good standing are given high priority.

Credit will generally be given on basis of CLEP General and Subject Examinations. Maximum of 8 units of credit by examination may be counted toward degree. Foreign Language Association placement tests in French and Spanish also used. Academic regulations: 1.5 (on a 4.0 scale) grade-point average required for first semester, 1.6 for second semester; approximately 90% of the freshmen are successful in meeting these requirements. Graduate programs: Business and commerce, education, English and journalism, fine and applied arts, foreign language and literature, geography, mathematics, philosophy, physical sciences, psychology, social sciences, Muslim world studies. Additional information: Two of four January terms must be completed in order to meet graduation requirements. Students may select January term project, subject to approval by adviser.

ADMISSIONS. Applications in 1971: 371 men applied, 360 were accepted; 159 women applied, 155 were accepted. Admissions requirements: ACT or SAT by spring of senior year. High school English 4 units, social studies 2, foreign language 2 (except for certain programs), mathematics 2, science 2. The unit requirements listed are preferred; but with the exception of English, no arbitrary unit requirement exists for the other areas. Interview recommended. Basis for selection: Each applicant's academic record is appraised in light of his or her educational goals. Also, the applicant is encouraged to examine his or her personal philosophies and objectives and, through comparing them with those of the college, determine whether the proper match will be made by enrolling at the college. Middle 50% of applicants accepted for admission had SAT-verbal scores between 425 and 475 and SAT-mathematical scores between 440 and 480. Application fee: $10, may be waived for applicants with financial need. Application procedures: Closing date for applications August 1, applicants notified of decisions August 3, accepted applicants must reply within 30 days of acceptance. Transfer applicants: About 50 apply annually, and 47 are accepted. Apply by July 1 for fall term. Other requirements and procedures: applicants should forward transcript of all undergraduate work completed, plus a catalog for each college attended. A statement of honorable dismissal must accompany transcripts and catalogs. Applicants will receive a preliminary estimate of the number of transferable credits at matriculation, with final decision at the end of the first semester.

STUDENT LIFE. Freshman class: 190 men, 110 women. 35% from Maine, 95% live on campus, 2% commute, 5% from minority backgrounds. Four-year public university for men and women. Undergraduates: 1,900 men, 1,800 women. Calendar: 4-1-4, summer session. Location: Two campus centers 10 miles apart, Portland (80,000 population) and Gorham (7,000 population). Special features: The two campus centers provide diversity in educational experiences, combining city and small town atmospheres with many opportunities for preprofessional training.

CURRICULUM. Undergraduate degrees offered: Associate, bachelor. Fields of study: Art (art history, design, graphic arts, photography, printing, studio art), biological sciences (bacteriology, biochemistry, biology, physiology), business and commerce (accounting, business management and administration, marketing, sales and retailing, computer science and systems analysis (data processing), education (art, child development and nursery, elementary, industrial arts, music, physical education, secondary, vocational trade and industrial), engineering (agricultural, chemical, civil, electrical, mechanical), English and literature (creative writing, English, literature, speech), foreign languages (Classical languages, French, German, linguistics, Spanish), geography, health and medical professions (nursing–registered), history and cultures (American, European), mathematics (statistics), music (composition and theory, instrumental music, music history, voice), philosophy and religion (philosophy), physical sciences (astronomy, chemistry, earth science, geology, oceanography, physical sciences, physics), psychology (child, experimental, general, social), social sciences (anthropology, economics, political science, social work, sociology), theater arts (dance, drama, theater arts), trade and vocational, criminal justice, two-year business administration, general interdisciplinary studies. Special programs: Accelerated program, cooperative education, honors program, independent study. Programs for students from minorities or low-income families: Reduced course load, pre-admission summer program for Upward Bound students. Required freshman courses: English composition, history or social studies, mathematics, science. Tests used for counseling, placement, or credit: ACH. Placement, credit, or both will generally be given for grades of 3 and higher in Advanced Placement Examinations. Credit will generally be given in the School of Nursing on basis of CLEP General Examinations. Academic regulations: Freshmen must achieve by the end of first semester a 1.35 grade-point average (4.0 scale) and 1.60 by the end of second semester. 82% of freshmen complete year in good academic standing. Graduate programs: Biological sciences, business and commerce, education, engineering, law, library science, mathematics, physical sciences.

ADMISSIONS. Applications in 1971: 700 men applied, 389 were accepted; 900 women applied, 381 were accepted. Admissions requirements: ACT by December, or SAT by January. ACH English Composition Test or Literature Test by January. ACH in mathematics for mathematics majors, in history for history majors, in science for science majors, in a foreign language for language majors. High school English 4 units, social studies 2, mathematics 3, science 2. Interview required for music, art, and industrial arts candidates. Basis for selection: High school curriculum; grades earned; rank in class; secondary school recommendation; SAT or ACT scores and ACH scores. Candidates are considered in relationship to the school or college within the university. Minorities and Upward Bound applicants are given special consideration; for out-of-state students, stronger academic records needed. Active participation in a few activities is encouraged over passive participation. Middle 50% of applicants accepted for admission had SAT-verbal scores between 500 and 550 and SAT-mathematical scores between 525 and 575. Application fee: $10, may be waived for applicants with financial need upon written recommendation by high school guidance counselor. Application procedures: Closing date for applications March 1 for out-of-state, April 1 for in-state, applicants notified of decisions on a rolling admissions basis, accepted applicants must reply within two weeks. Transfer applicants: About 800 apply annually, and 350 are accepted. Apply by March 1 (out-of-state) or April 1 (in-state) for fall term. Other requirements and procedures: transfer work must correspond to student's field of study; candidates with 2.0 grade-point average on 4.0 scale from accredited institutions are considered; nonaccredited school candidates must have 2.75 grade-point average, with no grades below B accepted for transfer credit. Additional information: Candidates for art must submit a portfolio; candidates for music must come to the university for an audition; candidates for industrial arts must take special aptitude tests.

STUDENT LIFE. Freshman class: 400 men, 400 women. 90% from Maine, 50% live on campus, 50% commute, 1% from minority backgrounds. Middle 50% of enrolled freshmen have SAT-verbal scores between 490 and 525 and SAT-mathematical scores between 500 and 550. 70% of the freshmen graduate in the top third of their high school class. Students possess good academic potential. Programs undergraduates choose: Liberal arts 35%, engineering 2%, education 38%, business 20%, health services 5%. Postgraduate studies: 50% of graduates of 2-year programs enter 4-year programs. 65% of graduates of 4-year programs enter graduate or professional programs. Student activities: Student government, student newspaper, magazine, yearbook, radio, religious organizations (Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, Newman Club, Religious Affairs Club), drama, dance, symphony orchestra, concert band, Young Democrats, Young Republicans, Forum Club, social service organizations (Circle K, Student Education Association, International Education Association), fraternities, sororities. Athletics: Archery, baseball-M, basketball, bowling, cross-country-M, field hockey-W, golf-M, gymnastics-W, lacrosse-W, sailing-M, skiing, soccer-M, softball-M, squash-M, tennis, track and field-M, wrestling-M, volleyball, badminton, flag football, table tennis, cycle racing. Student services: Counseling, health services, student employment service for undergraduates, placement service for graduates and alumni, community volunteer service center. Regulations: Freshman and sophomore resident students are not allowed cars on campus. Freshmen may live on campus or make their own private housing arrangements. Additional information: Students are encouraged to participate in the diversity of academic, social, cultural, and community activities available to them.

ANNUAL EXPENSES. Tuition and fees: $509.50, for students from out-of-state $1,409.50. Room and board: $1,050. Other expenses: $550.

FINANCIAL AID. Aid offered: Grants, loans, jobs, NDSL, EOG, CWSP, nursing loans and scholarships, Law Enforcement Education Program. 518 accepted freshman applicants were judged to have need, 369 of these were offered aid, all of these were offered the full amounts they were estimated to need. Basis for selection: Financial aid awarded on the basis of need. The greater the need the higher the award, with heavy financial funding from federal funds. In-state and out-of-state students are considered equally in relationship to the higher out-of-state cost. Minority and poverty-level income groups are given high priority. Application procedures: Closing date for applications April 1, applicants notified of decisions by June, recipients of aid offers must reply by July. FCS required. Transfer students: Same as freshmen; all candidates are considered in late spring. Additional information: The university placement office and office of financial aid assists many students in securing part-time employment in the greater Portland area. If the university cannot offer aid, it encourages students to secure funds through the United Student Aid Fund program.

University of Maine at Presque Isle
Presque Isle, Maine

Four-year public university for men and women, with a primary focus on teacher education. Undergraduates: 650 men, 850 women. Graduates: 120 men, 80 women. Calendar: Semester, summer session. Location: Small city. Special features: The University of Maine at Presque Isle is unique in that it is a small, publicly supported institution. This combination affords the advantages of low cost with small "private school" size. Presque Isle offers a friendly and lively atmosphere for both the academic and social development of the student. The City of Presque Isle is a commercial and industrial center for a large region and offers many services desired by college students.

CURRICULUM. Undergraduate degrees offered: Bachelor. Fields of study: Art (graphic arts, studio art), biological sciences (biology), education (elementary, health, physical education, recreation, secondary), English and literature (English, literature, speech), foreign languages (French), history and cultures (American, area and regional), mathematics, physical sciences (chemistry, geology, physics), psychology, social sciences (political science, social work, sociology). Special programs: 2-year engineering program for transfer to the College of Technology, University of Maine at Orono; independent study; 2-year nursing program for transfer to the School of Nursing at the University of Maine at Portland-Gorham. Programs for students from minorities or low-income families: Special counselor, pre-admission summer program, tutoring, reduced course load. Required freshman courses: English composition, social studies, literature, mathematics, science, humanities. Tests used for counseling, placement, or credit: Placement, credit, or both will generally be given for grades of 3 and higher in Advanced Placement Examinations. Credit will generally be given on basis of CLEP General and Subject Examinations. Maximum of 60 semester hours of credit by examination may be counted toward degree. Academic regulations: First semester freshmen are put on probation for grade-point averages of 1.20 to 1.49, good standing requires a 1.5 to 4.0 grade-point average; second semester 1.20 to 1.59 for probation, 1.6 to 4.0 for good standing. 90% of freshmen complete year in good academic standing. Additional information: The required liberal arts areas of study are flexible and designed to provide freshmen with as much exposure to individualized and small group learning situations as possible. For example, writers laboratory replaces the traditional freshman English composition, and through this approach the student, either alone or within a small group, exchanges ideas and criticisms with the professor. The health, physical education, and recreation majors are certified upon graduation to teach in grades K to 12. This is the only such major in Maine and the excellent success of the program is recognized throughout the New England region.

ADMISSIONS. Applications in 1971: 306 men applied, 136 were accepted; 319 women applied, 201 were accepted. Admissions requirements: ACT or SAT by January of senior year. ACH English Composition Test plus one additional ACH of student's own choosing. Secondary education majors must take ACH in their area of specialization, except for those in English, who should select some other test. Also, for Canadian applicants the Service for Admission to College and University is required by senior year. High school English 4 units, social studies 2, mathematics 3, science 2, electives 3, and 2 units of one language. Basis for selection: Achievement in secondary school is the single most important factor for the typical entering freshman. Veterans and other older applicants are judged on present readiness for the program rather than on work undertaken several years ago. The recommendations of teachers and counselors and the applicant's test scores are also considered in the admissions decision. In addition, the applicant is evaluated in light of indicated major or area of interest, especially in view of the general enrollment limits for each academic division. Middle 50% of applicants accepted for admission had SAT-verbal scores between 400 and 510 and SAT-mathematical scores between 440 and 530. Application fee: $10, may be waived for applicants with high financial need. Application procedures: Closing date for applications May 31, applicants notified of decisions on a rolling admissions basis, accepted applicants must reply 3 weeks after acceptance. Transfer applicants: About 220 apply annually, and 135 are accepted. Apply by June 15 for fall term. Other requirements and procedures: same as for freshmen; transfer students are considered for admission if they are in good standing at another accredited institution; individuals seeking transfer from other institutions are evaluated on an individual basis. Report of Credit Given by Educational Institutions published by the AACRAO is the basis for transfer of credit. Credit is generally awarded for C or better grades in comparable courses or majors.

STUDENT LIFE. Freshman class: 80 men, 120 women. 94% from Maine, 65% live on campus, 35% commute, 2% from minority backgrounds. Middle 50% of enrolled freshmen have SAT-verbal scores between 400 and 510 and SAT-mathematical scores between 440 and 530. Approximately 90% of freshmen were in the top half of their senior classes and over 55% were in the top quarter of their classes. For reasons of maturity and past training veterans also do well when accepted. Programs undergraduates choose: Liberal arts 5%, engineering 2%, secondary education 40%, physical education 28%, elementary education 25%. Postgraduate studies: 40% of graduates enter graduate or professional programs. Student activities: Student government, student newspaper, magazine, yearbook, film, religious organizations (Newman Club, Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship), drama, musical theater, jazz band, Ren-Bar Ensemble, open chorus, audition chorus, political science club, tutoring service, fraternities. Athletics: Archery-W, baseball-M, basketball, bowling, cross-country-M, fencing, field hockey-W, football-M, golf, gymnastics, handball, lacrosse, skiing, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, track and field, wrestling-M. Student services: Counseling, health services, student employment service for undergraduates, placement service for graduates and alumni, tutorial service. Regulations: Resident freshmen cannot have automobiles on campus. All students under 20 years of age either commute from home or live on campus. Those 20 years of age or older may live off campus if all dormitories are full. There are no compulsory chapel services. All students are required to abide by the provisions of the student code which was passed by the student body and the faculty.

ANNUAL EXPENSES. Tuition and fees: $466, for students from out-of-state $1,366. Room and board: $1,000. Other expenses: $450.

FINANCIAL AID. Aid offered: Grants, jobs, NDSL, EOG, CWSP, Law Enforcement Education Program. 89 accepted freshman applicants were judged to have need, 66 of these were offered aid, 22 of these were offered the full amounts they were estimated to need. Basis for selection: Selection is based on financial need. Application procedures: Preferred closing date for applications March 1. PCS or SFS required. Transfer students: Transfer students are treated on the same basis as all other students.

Maximum of 24 semester hours of credit by examination may be counted toward degree. Other tests used for counseling, placement, or credit: Several on-campus tests that correspond with the CLEP; these are used for placement of a certain subject offered on campus. Academic regulations: Students must carry a quality-point index no lower than 2.0.

ADMISSIONS. Applications in 1971: 449 men applied, 449 were accepted; 150 women applied, 150 were accepted. Admissions requirements: ACT at least a month prior to beginning of a semester. Test used for placement and counseling only. High school English 4 units, mathematics 2, science 2. Units not required for admission to the college but may be required for admission to certain courses. Interview required. Basis for selection: Must possess a high school diploma or a high school equivalency certificate. All high school graduates are admitted to the college, although not necessarily to a specific curriculum. Each applicant will be interviewed by a member of the counseling staff before admission in an effort to assist the student in planning his program of studies. A student who does not meet the basic entrance requirements for a curriculum he desires to enter will be offered a program that will enable him to qualify for entrance into that curriculum. Application fee: $5, may be waived for applicants with financial need provided college receives notice from high school counselor or principal. Application procedures: Closing date for applications July 15, applicants notified of decisions as soon as application is processed, accepted applicants must reply when notified by counselors for interview. Transfer applicants: About 220 apply annually, and 220 are accepted. Apply by August 15 for fall term. Previous credits must fit the program of studies chosen at the college. Must have an official transcript sent directly from previous institution. St. John's College, Annapolis, Maryland

Four-year private nonsectarian liberal arts college for men and women. Undergraduates: 202 men, 130 women. Calendar: Semester, summer session (12 weeks, second-semester freshmen only). Location: Large town 30 miles from Washington, D.C., 26 miles from Baltimore, Maryland. Special features: The college seeks to develop free and rational men and women committed to the pursuit of knowledge in its fundamental unity, intelligently appreciative of their common cultural heritage, and conscious of their social and moral obligations. The primary function of the liberal arts has always been to mediate men's understanding, to give conscious form to knowledge through systems of signs accommodated to men's intellects – that is, words and numbers. There are many ways to develop these arts. The college program emphasizes four of them: discussion, translation, demonstration, and experimentation. But whatever the methods used, they all serve the same end: to make the student think for himself, to enable him to practice the arts of freedom. Teaching faculty–student radio: 1 to 8.

CURRICULUM. Undergraduate degrees offered: Bachelor. Fields of study: The common course of study undertaken by all students is dedicated to the ideal of liberal learning achieved through study (from original sources) and discussion. The interrelated program includes philosophy, language, mathematics, science, music, literature, history, and political theory. Architecture (city planning, urban development), art (art history), biological sciences (biology), business and commerce (business management and administration), communications (journalism), computer science and systems analysis (data processing, systems analysis), education (elementary, general, music, secondary), English and literature (creative writing, English, literature), foreign languages (Classical languages, French), health and medical professions, history and cultures (American, ancient, area and regional, European), library science, mathematics (statistics), music (composition and theory, instrumental music, music history, voice), philosophy and religion (philosophy, religion, scholastic philosophy, theology), physical sciences (astronomy, chemistry, physical sciences, physics), psychology (general, social), social sciences (anthropology, foreign service, international relations, political science, public administration, social work, sociology), theater arts (dance, drama, theater arts). Required freshman courses: English composition, foreign language, history or social studies, literature, mathematics, science. A single, unified program is required for all students. Academic regulations: At the end of each semester, oral rather than written examinations are held. The student is questioned on the texts he has read and on his critical and interpretative opinions. He is encouraged to consider different parts of his study in relation to each other and to problems that may not have been treated in any of his classes. At the end of each semester the student meets all his tutors in the "don rag." Each tutor reports on the student's work during the semester; the student is then invited to report on himself and to judge his own work. Advice may be requested and given; difficulties may be aired. Grades are recorded but are neither distributed nor discussed. Additional information: In 1937 the college eliminated academic majors, electives, lecture classes, textbooks, fraternities, intercollegiate athletics, and the gap between teacher and student. In their place, the college gave its students a curriculum based on rigorous study of language, science, mathematics, and music; thoughtful examination and discussion of the "Great Books," and an active role in their own education.

ADMISSIONS. Applications in 1971: 138 men applied, 91 were accepted; 93 women applied, 66 were accepted. Admissions requirements: ACT or SAT on a rolling admissions basis. High school English 4 units, foreign language 2 (in the same language), mathematics 3, science 3. Requirements would vary for those students accepted for early entrance. Interview required for early entrance. Interview recommended for other applicants. Basis for selection: Applicants submit a lengthy essay which is given primary consideration by the admissions committee. Other things considered by the committee are test scores (SAT or ACT), academic record, two letters of reference, and a record of an interview (not required; however, 128 of last year's 140 freshmen visited the campus and were interviewed). New students enter in February as well as September. No special consideration given to any applicant. Application fee: None. Application procedures: No closing date for applications, applicants notified of decisions on a rolling admissions basis. Transfer applicants: About 90 apply annually, and 45 are accepted. Applications for fall term are on a rolling admissions basis. Other requirements and procedures: all transfer students must enroll as freshmen; approximately 30% of each freshman class have attended college previously. Additional information: The application form asks for no irrelevant information. Students write (usually in 6 to 10 pages, sometimes in 20 or more) their answers to a list of questions designed to let them express themselves and to show the quality of their minds.

STUDENT LIFE. Freshman class: 70 men, 56 women. 12% from Maryland, 98% live on campus, 2% commute. Middle 50% of enrolled freshmen have SAT-verbal scores between 641 and 732 and SAT-mathematical scores between 589 and 717. In last year's freshman class 64% ranked in the top fifth of their class in secondary school, 84% in the top two-fifths. Programs undergraduates choose: Liberal arts 100%. Postgraduate studies: 65% of graduates enter graduate or professional programs. Student activities: Student government (Elected Delegate Council interprets student opinion to administrators, helps establish and enforce residence rules, supervises and funds student organizations), student newspaper, drama, dance, chamber music ensembles, individual concerts, political organizations (public affairs forum), social service organizations (voluntary social service work in community). Athletics: Basketball, fencing, football (touch), gymnastics, handball, sailing, soccer, softball, squash, tennis, track and field, paddleball, table tennis, volleyball, badminton. Student services: Counseling, health services, student employment service for undergraduates, placement service for graduates and alumni. Regulations: Freshmen may have cars but may not park on campus. Unmarried students may live off campus only with special permission. The college observes Maryland and local laws relative to alcoholic beverages and minors. The use of drugs not medically prescribed is prohibited. A student's enrollment is regarded as a commitment on his part that he will not take drugs. If he does so he will have broken faith with the college community, and his membership in the college will be terminated. Additional information: Work and play are not polarized at the college. Whatever goes on outside the classroom assumes much of the character of what happens inside. Students are expected to be neither "well rounded" nor "spread thin." They find their own interests and cultivate them to the extent they choose.

ANNUAL EXPENSES. Tuition and fees: $2,450. Room and board: $1,150. Other expenses: $400.

FINANCIAL AID. Aid offered: Grants, loans, jobs. NDSL, EOG. 38 accepted freshman applicants were judged to have need; all were offered the full amounts they were estimated to need. Basis for selection: Based on need as determined by the PCS and by the financial aid officer. Application procedures: No closing date for applications, applicants notified of decisions on a rolling admissions basis. PCS required. Transfer students: All students start as freshmen regardless of previous college work. Aid is determined as for any freshman. Additional information: Students on aid work at a campus job for the first $450. College grant added if necessary, then a loan is added to the grant if need is great enough to require it.

Interview recommended. Basis for selection: The college emphasizes most strongly the candidate's high school record. Of secondary importance are test scores, references, and activities. The preferred applicant ranks in the top two-fifths of his graduating class. Application fee: $15, may be waived for applicants with financial need. Application procedures: No closing date for applications, applicants notified of decisions on a rolling admissions basis, accepted applicants must reply by May 1. Transfer applicants: About 72 apply annually, and 39 are accepted. No deadline for applications for fall term. Graduates of accredited junior colleges holding an A.A. degree in liberal arts with a 2.00 quality-point average are admitted to junior year standing.

STUDENT LIFE. Freshman class: 138 men, 127 women. 45% from Maryland, 88% live on campus, 12% commute, 2% from minority backgrounds. Programs undergraduates choose: Liberal arts 95%, fine arts 5%. Postgraduate studies: 60% of graduates enter graduate or professional programs. Student activities: Student government, student newspaper, magazine, yearbook, radio, religious organizations (Newman, Wesley, Intervarsity Christian Fellowship), drama, dance, concert band, chorus, chorale, ethnic organizations (Afro-American Student Association), social service organizations (Omicron Delta Kappa, Senior Women's Honor Society), fraternities, sororities. Athletics: Baseball-M, basketball, cross-country-M, field hockey-W, football-M, lacrosse-M, rowing (crew)-M, sailing-M, skiing, soccer-M, softball-W, tennis-M, track and field-M, wrestling-M, volleyball. Student services: Counseling, health services, student employment service for undergraduates, placement service for graduates and alumni. Regulations: Few specific regulations; freshmen are required to live on campus unless they live within commuting distance. Additional information: Student life at the college is quite informal. Policies are, in large measure, administered by the students themselves. The smallness and informality of the campus promotes a closeness among the students and encourages the development of individual interests and talents.

ANNUAL EXPENSES. Tuition and fees: $2,211. Room and board: $1,000. Other expenses: $500.

FINANCIAL AID. Aid offered: Grants, loans, jobs. NDSL, EOG, CWSP. 145 accepted freshman applicants were judged to have need; 67 of these were offered aid; 67 of these were offered the full amounts they were estimated to need. Basis for selection: Financial aid is awarded on an equally competitive basis to applicants with demonstrated need who otherwise qualify for admission. The student's academic record, SAT results, school recommendation, participation in school and community affairs, and personal qualities are utilized for a subjective evaluation. Middle 50% of applicants who were offered financial aid had SAT-verbal scores between 461 and 753 and SAT-mathematical scores between 509 and 708. Application procedures: Closing date for applications February 1, applicants notified of decisions in mid-March, recipients of aid offers must reply within 10 days. PCS required by February 1. Transfer students: Aid is available for transfer students based on same criteria as those for freshmen and through the same procedures. The filing deadline for transfer students is April 1. Additional information: For financial aid applicants the application for admission and all supporting credentials must be on file in the office of admissions by February 1.

CURRICULUM. Undergraduate degrees offered: Bachelor. Fields of study: Art (art history), biological sciences (biology), education (art, education of the deaf, health, music, physical education, secondary), English and literature (English, literature), foreign languages (Classical languages, French, German, Russian, Spanish), history and cultures, library science, mathematics, military science (military science–army), music (instrumental music, music history), philosophy and religion (philosophy, religion), physical sciences (chemistry, physics), psychology (general), social sciences (economics, political science, sociology), theater arts (drama). Special programs: Accelerated program, honors program, independent study, Junior Year Abroad, 3-2 forestry program with Duke University. Programs for students from minorities or low-income families: Reduced course load. Military training: Army ROTC. Required freshman courses: English composition, foreign language, social studies, literature, physical education, religion, science, non-Western studies, and fine arts to be taken in freshman and sophomore years. Tests used for counseling, placement, or credit: Placement, credit, or both will generally be given for grades of 3 and higher in Advanced Placement Examinations. Credit will generally be given on basis of CLEP General and Subject Examinations. Maximum of 30 semester hours of credit by examination may be counted toward degree. ACH, United States Armed Forces Institute tests, professors' individual tests, and all available information used for counseling and placement. Academic regulations: Any student who exceeds an academic deficiency of 20 points will be dropped unless, in the case of freshmen, the committee may (and usually does) vote for a second semester. 6% of freshmen drop out for academic reasons. Graduate programs: Education, education of the deaf. Additional information: Graduate programs leading to the Master of Education degree include administration and supervision, English, guidance, physical education, reading, and social studies.

ADMISSIONS. Applications in 1971: 474 men applied, 307 were accepted; 486 women applied, 353 were accepted. Admissions requirements: SAT. A foreign-language ACH by December of senior year. Foreign-language ACH required for placement or for exemption from college graduate requirements. Interview recommended. Basis for selection: A 9-member committee evaluates the following: rank in graduating class (84% rank in top 20%); subjects and grades; test results; personal traits, goals, motivation; recommendations by counselors and teachers; and participation in activities of a nonacademic nature. Application fee: $10. Application procedures: Closing date for applications January 15 for women, February 15 for men, applicants notified of decisions within 4 or 5 weeks of completed application, accepted applicants must reply within 4 weeks of acceptance letter. Transfer applicants: About 46 apply annually, and 38 are accepted. Apply by January 15 for women, February 15 for men for fall term. Other requirements and procedures: at least C average on previous academic record. Courses similar in content to the offerings at the college are generally transferable from regionally accredited collegiate institutions and newly established institutions in "candidate" status if the student has received one grade above the lowest passing grade in the course. Students transferring from other colleges will receive an indication of transfer credits from the admissions and standards committee at the time they receive a decision offering them admission to the college.

STUDENT LIFE. Freshman class: 138 men, 151 women. 85% from Maryland, 90% live on campus, 10% commute, .5% from minority backgrounds. Middle 50% of enrolled freshmen have SAT-verbal scores between 565 and 575 and SAT-mathematical scores between 593 and 603. Programs undergraduates choose: Liberal arts 100%. Postgraduate studies: 60% of graduates enter graduate or professional programs. Student activities: Student government, student newspaper, magazine, yearbook, radio (local station, not college operated), film, drama, dance, symphony orchestra, marching band, concert band, choir, women's glee club, chamber group, political organizations (Young Democrat Club, Young Republican Club), social service organizations, fraternities, sororities. Athletics: Baseball-M, basketball, bowling-M, cross-country-M, field hockey-W, football (touch)-M, golf, handball-M, lacrosse, soccer-M, softball, squash-M, swimming and diving-M, tennis, track and field-M, wrestling-M, volleyball. Student services: Counseling, health services, student employment service for undergraduates, placement service for graduates and alumni. Regulations: Freshmen may not have cars on campus unless they commute. Freshmen may not have campus employment. Women must have sophomore standing before joining a sorority. All students live in college-owned housing unless living at home or with relatives.

ANNUAL EXPENSES. Tuition and fees: $2,000. Room and board: $1,000. Other expenses: $120.

FINANCIAL AID. Aid offered: Grants, loans, jobs. NDSL, EOG, CWSP. Education of the Deaf Scholarships. 201 accepted freshman applicants were judged to have need; 105 of these were offered aid; 95 of these were offered the full amounts they were estimated to need. Basis for selection: Financial need of primary importance. The college cannot meet every student's need, so needs of academically best students (evaluating total record) are met first. Minority students receive special consideration. Middle 50% of applicants who were offered financial aid had SAT-verbal scores between 600 and 650 and SAT-mathematical scores between 600 and 650. Application procedures: Closing date for applications February 28, applicants notified of decisions prior to April 1, recipients of aid offers must reply within 3 weeks. PCS required. Transfer students: Transfer students follow same procedure as incoming freshmen but with less emphasis on College Board tests in determining awards. Additional information: Students should take full advantage of state scholarship programs where possible and should also pursue all avenues of aid outside the college.

Bradford Junior College, Bradford, Massachusetts

Two-year private nonsectarian liberal arts college for men and women. Undergraduates: 8 men, 316 women. Calendar: Semester. Location: Small city, suburban community 32 miles from Boston. Special features: Student-faculty ratio of 10 to 1 encourages variety of independent study programs including required freshman tutorial, senior seminars, and honors reading programs. Exclusively liberal arts program enables more than 80% of graduates to transfer as juniors.

CURRICULUM. Undergraduate degrees offered: Associate. Fields of study: Art (art history, design, graphic arts, photography, printing, studio art), biological sciences (biochemistry, biology, ecology), communications (film, journalism, radio and television), computer science and systems analysis (computer science, data processing, systems analysis), English and literature (creative writing, English, literature, speech), ethnic studies (black or Afro-American), foreign languages (French, German, Spanish), geography, history and cultures (American, ancient, area and regional, European), mathematics (statistics), music (composition and theory, instrumental music, music history, voice), philosophy and religion (philosophy, religion), physical sciences (chemistry, geology), psychology (child, general, social), social sciences (anthropology, economics, political science, sociology), theater arts (dance, drama, theater arts). Special programs: Accelerated program, honors program, independent study, study abroad. Required freshman courses: English composition. Tests used for counseling, placement, or credit: Placement, credit, or both will generally be given for grades of 3 and higher in Advanced Placement Examinations. Academic regulations: The Bradford faculty determines in May all freshmen who are eligible to return for a second year. Each student must have earned a minimum of 26 credits and have a grade-point average of 1.500 for second semester or cumulatively. Special exceptions may be presented by the faculty. Average below 2.000 places a student on academic probation. Additional information: To encourage its concept of student freedom joined to responsibility, the Bradford faculty recently voted to remove specific area studies from graduation requirements. This more open curriculum creates new opportunities for students to pursue individually selected programs of exploration from the breadth of an extensive liberal arts curriculum. While all students remain responsible for their academic and personal lives, they have available to them as much qualified advice as they choose to seek. Faculty advisers and counselors are available from the outset to assist them in choosing courses that build on their secondary school years and to help in effecting a smooth transition to college studies and college life.

ADMISSIONS. Applications in 1971: 11 men applied, 11 were accepted; 442 women applied, 389 were accepted. Admissions requirements: SAT by January. High school English 4 units. Candidates must have completed at least 16 units of high school credit, 15 of which must be in solid college preparatory courses. Interview recommended. Basis for selection: Of prime importance is evidence of a student's potential for achievement within the demands of a liberal arts program. Bradford seeks to identify students who will respond to a personal, lively environment conducive to the growth of intellect, confidence, and responsibility. The college also seeks to attract students from varied backgrounds (social, economic, racial, religious, and geographic) in order to generate among all students an exchange of diverse points of view. In evaluating an applicant's credentials, the admissions committee considers such diversity as well as special talents and interests. Middle 50% of applicants accepted for admission had SAT-verbal scores between 450 and 550 and SAT-mathematical scores between 450 and 550. Application fee: $15, may be waived for applicants with financial need. Application procedures: No formal closing date for applications, applicants notified of decisions on rolling admissions basis, accepted applicants must reply by May 1. CRDA. EDP-F. Transfer applicants: About 12 apply annually, and 8 are accepted. No formal closing date for fall-term applications. Other requirements and procedures: The student must be in good standing at the college he or she is currently attending and submit complete secondary school and college transcripts together with a recommendation from current college dean. A statement from the student discussing reasons for transferring is required. Full credit for courses passed with a grade of C or better.

STUDENT LIFE. Freshman class: 18% from Massachusetts, 94% live on campus, 6% commute, 2% from minority backgrounds. Middle 50% of enrolled freshmen have SAT-verbal scores between 450 and 550 and SAT-mathematical scores between 450 and 550. Programs undergraduates choose: Liberal arts 100%. Postgraduate studies: 86% of graduates enter 4-year programs. Student activities: Student government, student newspaper, magazine, yearbook, film, religious organizations, drama, dance, political organizations, social service organizations. Athletics: Archery, basketball, fencing, field hockey-W, golf, gymnastics, lacrosse-W, skiing, soccer-W, softball-W, swimming and diving, tennis. Student services: Counseling, health services, student employment service for undergraduates. Regulations: Students may keep cars on campus. Except for local students living at home all students must live on campus. There is no compulsory chapel attendance. Additional information: Bradford is fundamentally concerned with an individual approach to education in order to provide maximum opportunities for intellectual and personal growth. This approach extends into the classroom and beyond to include all aspects of living in an intimate and congenial campus community.

ANNUAL EXPENSES. Comprehensive fee: $3,950 for resident students, $1,975 day students. Other expenses: $625.

FINANCIAL AID. Aid offered: Grants, loans, jobs. NDSL. 33 accepted freshman applicants were judged to have need, 33 of these were offered aid, 33 of these were offered the full amounts they were estimated to need. Basis for selection: All students accepted for admission are considered for aid on the basis of need. There is no distinction between in-state or out-of-state applicants. Minority or poverty-level income groups requiring total inclusive fee (tuition, board and room) aid are not asked to work or take a loan as part of their award package but are given outright grants. Middle 50% of applicants who were offered financial aid had SAT-verbal scores between 450 and 550 and SAT-mathematical scores between 450 and 550. Application procedures: No formal closing date for applications but preferably by February 15, applicants notified of decisions following notification of acceptance by the admissions committee. recipients of aid offers must reply by May 1. Year Abroad program. Programs for students from minorities or low-income families: Tutoring, reduced course load. Required freshman courses: English composition, foreign language, history, literature, mathematics and science (for majors), physical education, religion. Tests used for counseling, placement, or credit: Placement, credit, or both will generally be given for grades of 3 and higher in Advanced Placement Examinations. Credit will generally be given on basis of CLEP Subject Examinations. Academic regulations: 1.6 quality-point average (for 30 credits) required for freshmen to continue in good standing. 86% of freshmen complete year in good academic standing.

ADMISSIONS. Applications in 1971: 267 women applied, 232 were accepted. Admissions requirements: SAT by January of senior year. English Composition and 2 other ACH by April of senior year. High school English 4 units, social studies 1, foreign language 2, mathematics 2, science 2, electives 6. Those who wish to concentrate in science or mathematics must have 4 units of science or mathematics. Interview strongly recommended. Basis for selection: Admission is determined by high school grades, class rank (top half), recommendations, SAT scores. An interview is strongly recommended to discuss student activities and plans and to make a more subjective decision. Middle 50% of applicants accepted for admission had SAT-verbal scores between 440 and 490 and SAT-mathematical scores between 425 and 475. Application fee: $10, may be waived for applicants with financial need. Application procedures: Closing date for applications April 1, applicants notified of decisions on rolling admissions basis, accepted applicants must reply (majority) by March 15. Transfer applicants: About 25 apply annually, and 10 are accepted. Apply by April for fall term. Other requirements and procedures: Same as for freshman applicants plus college transcript and recommendations from last college attended. Each applicant is interviewed regarding previous work. The lowest passing grade at the previous institution is not acceptable for transfer credit.

STUDENT LIFE. Freshman class: 126 women, 63% from Massachusetts, 78% live on campus, 22% commute, 2% from minority backgrounds. Middle 50% of enrolled freshmen have SAT-verbal scores between 450 and 490 and SAT-mathematical scores between 450 and 475. Programs undergraduates choose: Liberal arts 100%. Postgraduate studies: 35% of graduates enter graduate or professional programs. Later, more enter graduate schools. Student activities: Student government (in the form of student-faculty senate), student newspaper, yearbook, religious organizations, drama, dance, concert choir, social service organizations. Student services: Counseling, health services, student employment service for undergraduates, placement service for graduates and alumni. Regulations: All students (resident and commuter) must register their cars with the commuter council. Because of lack of parking space, freshman resident students are not allowed to have cars on campus. Any student may request residence in a dormitory. Certain regulations are asked of the students who choose to live in a residence hall. Compulsory chapel attendance is not required. Additional information: Through the student government association and the faculty student senate, students are encouraged to develop qualities of leadership and responsibility and thus contribute to an intellectual atmosphere on the campus.

ANNUAL EXPENSES. Tuition and fees: $1,475. Room and board: $900. Other expenses: $350.

FINANCIAL AID. Aid offered: Grants, loans, jobs. NDSL, EOG, CWSP. 65 accepted freshman applicants were judged to have need, 45 of these were offered aid, 10 of these were offered the full amounts they were estimated to need. Basis for selection: All financial aid is awarded on the basis of academic achievement and financial need, with need as a priority. Need is determined by an analysis of the PCS. There is no difference made between in-state and out-of-state applicants. Applicants from minorities or with poverty-level incomes are treated individually. Application procedures: Closing date for applications March 1 (even after this date applications are considered), applicants notified of decisions in April, recipients of aid offers must reply (usually) by the end of May. PCS required. Transfer students: Offered the same advantages as incoming freshmen. Additional information: Students who have financial problems have the opportunity to discuss them with members of administration who are willing to assist the needy student as much as possible.

Emerson College, Boston, Massachusetts

Four-year private nonsectarian college specializing in communications arts and sciences for men and women. Undergraduates: 743 men, 1,031 women. Graduates: 41 men, 64 women. Calendar: 3-term (12-week, 6-week, 12-week), summer session. Location: Metropolitan area.

CURRICULUM. Undergraduate degrees offered: Bachelor. Fields of study: Art (stage design-theater), communications (communications, film, journalism, radio and television), education (child development and nursery, education of exceptional children, education of the deaf, elementary, general, secondary, speech and hearing), English and literature (creative writing, English, literature, speech), history and cultures (American, European), music (composition and theory, instrumental music, music history, voice), psychology (child, general, social), theater arts (dance, drama, theater arts). Special programs: Independent study, study abroad in Europe (Mass Communications Department). Programs for students from minorities or low-income families: Special counselor, tutoring, reduced course load (sometimes recommended). Required freshman courses: Interdisciplinary program incorporating basic liberal arts courses with emphasis on basic communications skills (required of freshmen and sophomores). In addition to the core program, electives may be taken and independent study arranged. The basic goals of the interdisciplinary program are several: to involve the student in a meaningful way in his own educational adventure; to have the student develop basic skills of communication; to have the student engage in significant intellectual dialog (both historical and contemporary) in areas relating to the fundamental theme of Man the Communicator, and to provide elective opportunities for the student to explore areas of personal and professional interest. Tests used for counseling, placement, or credit: Placement, credit, or both will sometimes be given on basis of Advanced Placement Examinations. Academic regulations: Successful completion of the freshman year means fulfilling in a satisfactory way the goals of the interdisciplinary program. Both the teacher and the student are involved in assessing the student's performance in these various areas. Graduate programs: Mass communications, speech, theater arts. Additional information: The curriculum consists of 2 levels. The first level, for freshmen and sophomores, is an interdisciplinary program which helps students interpret their own experiences, encourages them to experiment with the various communications media, and provides them with an introduction to science and the humanities. At the second level, for juniors and seniors, students concentrate in one of the communications arts and sciences or in one of the liberal arts.

ADMISSIONS. Applications in 1971: 607 men applied, 288 were accepted; 967 women applied, 654 were accepted. Admissions requirements: SAT and English Composition ACH by January of senior year. While there are no rigidly prescribed high school subject-matter, course, or unit prerequisites for admission, the most rigorous academic background available is encouraged. Interview recommended. Basis for selection: Ability to do passing work at Harvard is most important criterion. Other factors such as strength of character, creative ability in some field, leadership, rural or small-town background, intellectual curiosity, and a demonstrated concern for public good are very important. Most of those admitted are honor students in high school and score between 500 and 800 on the SAT. Application fee: $15, may be waived for applicants with financial need. Application procedures: Closing date for applications January, applicants notified of decisions approximately April 15, accepted applicants must reply May 1 or later. CRDA. Transfer applicants: About 1,000 apply annually, and 45 are accepted. Apply by March 1 for fall term. A student will not be considered for transfer who has less than 1 full year of college, nor more than 2.

STUDENT LIFE. Freshman class: 1,225 men, 20% from Massachusetts, 99% live on campus, less than 1% commute, 11% from minority backgrounds. The freshman class reflects the effort of the committee on admissions to bring to the college community the best possible mix of intellectual ability and broad cultural representation. Programs undergraduates choose: Liberal arts 92%, engineering 4%, undeclared 4%. Postgraduate studies: 70% of graduates enter graduate or professional programs. Student activities: Student government (a decentralized system revolving around living units), student newspaper, magazine, yearbook, radio, film, art review, journal on current events, 2 honor magazines, religious organizations of all sects, drama, musical theater, dance, symphony orchestra, marching band, concert band, political organizations (Young Americans for Freedom, Students for a Democratic Society, Harvard Students for Israel, Young Socialist Alliance, Young Democrats, Republican Club), ethnic organizations (Association of African and Afro-American Students, Latin American Association), social service organizations (Phillips Brooks House is largest undergraduate organization). Athletics: Baseball, basketball, boxing, cross-country, fencing, football, golf, gymnastics, handball, ice hockey, lacrosse, rifle, rowing, rugby, sailing, skiing, soccer, softball, squash, swimming and diving, tennis, track and field, volleyball, water polo, wrestling. Student services: Counseling, health services, student employment service for undergraduates, placement service for graduates and alumni, academic tutoring and advising. Additional information: Every freshman has an academic adviser, either a resident proctor or a faculty member. Every upperclassman has a tutor—a faculty member in the student's field of concentration.

ANNUAL EXPENSES. Tuition and fees: $2,800. Room and board: $1,700. Other expenses: $700.

FINANCIAL AID. Aid offered: Grants, loans, jobs. NDSL, EOG, CWSP. 677 accepted freshman applicants were judged to have need, 677 of these were offered aid, 677 of these were offered the full amounts they were estimated to need (usually in some form of grant, loan, or job combination). Basis for selection: Scholarship stipends are determined by estimating financial need. They are reviewed each year for changes in students' financial need. Any student who enters with a scholarship is assured of continuing support for his 4 years of college provided that he is making a good effort and his academic record and conduct are satisfactory. Application procedures: Closing date for applications January 1, applicants notified of decisions approximately April 15, recipients of aid offers must reply May 1 or later. PCS and the college's scholarship form required. Transfer students: Same rules and requirements apply as for freshmen. Additional information: Upon application to the comptroller's office, a student and his family will be permitted to pay college bills in 8 monthly payments.
